

For Immediate Release: October 31, 2023

PRESS RELEASE

45 days training program of graduate engineers concludes at IIT (ISM)

The 45 days training program of graduate engineers of mining and metal business, including that of Iron Ore, Coal, and Beach Sand Mining & Bauxite Business being held from September 15 at concluded today at the Coal Technology Innovation hub of IIT (ISM) TEXMiN today with the valedictory function.

Prof JK Pattanayak, Director IIT (ISM) who was present during the function as chief guest while addressing the 82 participants of training program exhorted them to use the skill learnt during the training program to ensure safe, smart and sustainable mining.

Prof Dheeraj Kumar, Deputy Director, IIT (ISM); Prof Sagar Pal, Dean, Research & Development; Prof Sukanta Das, Associated Professor, Department of Electrical Engineering; Prof Ajeet Kumar, Faculty Incharge, Innovation and Skill Development; Suraj Prakash, Chief Executive Officer of TEXMiN and Md Danish, Chief Business Development Officer of TEXMiN were also present during the occasion.

Notably, the training program, titled Campus to Corporate focussing on business contours pertaining to mining ecosystem orientation during which session of financial modelling, safe & sustainable mining, field visits of open cast and provided the opportunity to the participants to have a feel of how, "Mining Industry Works"

Rajni Singh

Dean (Media & Branding)