

भारतीय प्रौद्योगिकी संस्थान (भारतीय खनि विद्यापीठ), धनबाद Indian Institute of Technology (Indian School of Mines), Dhanbad

For Immediate Release: January 19, 2024

PRESS RELEASE

Rajsthani Folk music performance by folk artist enralls audience at IIT (ISM)

The Penman Auditorium of IIT (ISM) reverberated with some mellifluous folk music performance by a host of well-known folk artists of Rajasthan led by Deen Mohammed, an internationally acclaimed folk artist.

The occasion was a traditional Rajsthani Folk Music Event presented by, SPIC MACAY under EK Bharat Shreshtha Bharat programme.

The hour long programme which began at 6 p.m. this evening in presence of Prof RM Bhattacharjee, Dean (International Relations & Alumni Affairs) and Prof BK Antony, Dean of Students Welfare and other's including Prof Sanjoy Mondal, Associate Dean, Students Welfare- Student Activities and Shri Prabodh Pandey, Registrar, IIT (ISM) besides large number of faculty, students, staff and their family members was hosted by office of Dean of Students Welfare.

Deen Mohammed, who is also the secretary of Thar Lok Kala Sansthan enralls the audience with his performance on Kamaicha, a bowed music instrument, which is considered to be oldest bowed music instrument of the world.

The team comprising of other artists, including, Subki, Alchi, Hanif Khan, Asin Khan (who sings and plays, Sindhi Sarangi, a type of Folk Sarangi), Devu Khan (Dholak) & Latif Khan (Harmonium).

Rajni Singh

Dean (Corporate Communications)