Blood Donation Camp organized by Fast Forward India (FFI) at IIT (ISM) Dhanbad.

A blood donation camp was organized today at the Health Centre of IIT (ISM) Dhanbad by Blood Line, a Chapter of Fast Forward India (FFI), a student society affiliated to the Centre for Societal Mission (CSM) of IIT (ISM) Dhanbad.

Inaugurating the camp by cutting ribbon, Prof. MK Singh, Dean (Academic), lauded the effort of Fast Forward India in organizing the camp and said, "The members of Fast Forward India are carrying out a vital act of social service by organizing the Blood Donation Camp on a regular basis."

He further said that the members of the FFI not only donate the blood during the camps but also help the needy patients in emergency condition by rushing to any hospital in Dhanbad or nearby areas on call to provide blood to save the lives of the people.

Prof. SK Gupta, Dean of Students Welfare, who was also present during the camp, said that the blood donation is the lifesaving activity, and students associated with Fast Forward India not only donate blood in Dhanbad but also visit different parts of Jharkhand to help the patients whose lives are threatened due to paucity of blood.

Prof. Ananda Shankar Hati, Faculty Advisor, FFI, said, "We are expecting a donation of around 150 units of blood during the camp."
