

For Immediate Release: October 16, 2024

PRESS-RELEASE

CVO office of IIT (ISM) conducts training on procurement rules as part of a series of training programs under Vigilance Awareness Week 2024.

The CVO office of IIT (ISM) Dhanbad organized a training program for employees of the institute on procurement rules, during which Shri Shubodh Kant, GeM trainer, Jharkhand and Bihar Region, Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology (MEITY) apprised the trainees about the legal, procedural, and regulatory framework of public procurement and about general financial rules on public procurement, etc.

The training conducted at the Executive Development Centre (EDC) lounge of IIT (ISM) Dhanbad last evening, during which Shri Prabodh Pandey, Registrar, IIT (ISM) Dhanbad, and others, including Shri Garib Nath Singh, Chief Vigilance Officer, IIT (ISM), and Mr Satyendra Kumar, Assistant Registrar (CVO Office), were present, was part of the series of training programs organized by the CVO Office of the institute under a three-month campaign of Vigilance Awareness Week 2024.

Shri Subodh Kant, during the hour-long training, also gave details of the various rules regarding procurement of goods through government funds, procurement of works through government funds, and also about general financial rules and government of India guidelines with regard to procurement of consulting services.

He also threw light on various aspects of contract management, including payments, PVC, etc.

As part of the series of training programs, a session on System and Procedure of the Organization and Cyber Crime Related to Financial Markets was chaired by Shri Prabodh Pandey, Registrar, IIT (ISM) on September 30, which was followed by training on conduct rules by Shri Alok Sharma, CoA, Central Institute of Mining and Fuel Research (CIMFR), held on October 1.

A session on Cyber Hygiene and Security by Shri Shri Sujeet Parashar, Scientist C, Dy. Director, Indian Computer Emergency Response Team, MEITY, was held on October 8, while the training on ethics and governance by SP CBI ACB Dhanbad was conducted on October 10.

Rajni Singh

Dean (Corporate Communications)