

For Immediate Release: June 28, 2024

PRESS-RELEASE

Five day Nurturing Future Leadership Program held under Malviya Mission Teacher Training Program concludes with lessons learnt by participants on effective academic leadership.

Curtains closed on the five day Nurturing Future Leadership Program with the valedictory ceremony held today at the MMTTC Centre, I2H Building of IIT (ISM).

The training held under of the Malviya Mission Teacher Training Programme (MMTTP) in which 18 faculty members from across the country took part was aimed to develop leadership skill among faculty members of higher educational institutions (HEIs).

Prof Somnath Chattopadhyay, Professor in Charge, Online Continuing Education Programme (OCEP) and Prof Md Irfan, Coordinator graced the occasion.

“Their enthusiasm and passion have been instrumental in fostering a culture of leadership within the academic community” said Prof Irfan.

He also lauded the role of resource persons in conducting the programme and said, “Their expertise has helped to conduct the program successfully, which was meant for the aspiring leaders of the academic arena”.

“The program not only equipped participants with essential leadership skills but also instilled a sense of responsibility and purpose among them” further said Prof Irfan.

“The impact of the Nurturing Future Leadership Program extends far beyond the confines of this institution, as participants return to their respective institutions empowered to effect positive change and foster a culture of excellence and innovation” added Prof Irfan.

Prof Mrinalini Pandey, Co coordinator of the program, expressed gratitude to all participants, faculty members, and staff for their dedication and commitment throughout the program

Rajni Singh

Dean (Corporate Communications)