

For Immediate Release: August 11, 2023

PRESS RELEASE

Ms Koyali Burman, Associate Director, Vancouver Local Immigration Partnership, Canada delivers lecture at IIT (ISM) on Higher Education, Immigration and Pathways for International Students

Koyali Burman, Associate Director of the Vancouver Local Immigration Partnership, today delivered a lecture, titled, Higher Education, Immigration and Pathways for International Students at the management hall of IIT (ISM) during which she spoke on various study pathways available for students for Canadian Partnership.

The 90 minute lecture held from 5 p.m. to 5.50 p.m. attended by B Tech, M Tech and PhD students besides other faculty members was organized by Department of Environmental Science & Engineering,

A, Master of Arts degree holder in Adult & Higher Education of University of British Columbia she has decade of experience in immigration and settlement and expertise in community research, monitoring, and evaluation locally and internationally.

Burman who serves as vice president of Affiliation of Multicultural Societies and Service Agencies of BC (AMSAA) is also the secretary to United Nations Association Canada Board besides holding various advisory and board of directors positions.

She holds a leadership position and has spoken about international migration and economic development for women in various platforms and universities in Vancouver and India.

As an international researcher, she collaborated with institutions from 15 commonwealth countries and developed a Gender-Sensitive Information & Communication Technology Strategy in Open Schooling.

Presented the strategy in the United Nations- Pan Commonwealth conference in Nigeria, Africa in 2014. Conducted extensive research on the unreached and marginalized women and girls in remote and rural areas in India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, and Sri Lanka to develop relevant skills that will lead to livelihoods.

As an international researcher, she collaborated with institutions from over 15 commonwealth countries and developed a Gender-Sensitive Information & Communication Technology Strategy in Open Schooling.

She also presented the strategy in the United Nations- Pan Commonwealth conference in Nigeria, Africa in 2014. Conducted extensive research on the unreached and marginalized women and girls in remote and rural areas in India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, and Sri Lanka to develop relevant skills that will lead to livelihoods.

Rajni Singh

Dean (Media & Branding)