

For Immediate Release: October 13, 2023

PRESS RELEASE

A host of technical contests and couch discussion with renowned Civil Services Interview expert, Vijender Chauhan marks the day 1 of three techno management fest of IIT (ISM); Concetto'23

Participants from over 100 institutes congregated at IIT (ISM) for the three day technical fest, Concetto'23 tested the grey matter of their brain during a host of technical events including, Galactic logic circuit Challenge, an electronic circuit designing contest besides other competitions like Electro design battle; Lazer Maze; Survival of Chemist; Paint Ball and Zorbing; Trailblaze, MathBee; Galactic Maze Maverick; Galactic Logic Circuit etc.

The most coveted event of the day proved to be a couch discussion of the students of IIT (ISM) as well as other participants with the renowned India Educator and mock interviewer, Vijender Chauhan during which he explained the strategy for preparation for interview of civil services examination and tricks to successfully.

An Associate Professor of Hindi at Zakir Hussain College of Delhi University, Chauhan during the elaborate discussion with the students dealt with the topics like approach to hobbies, meaning of interest, personality etc and also about different types of hobbies like reading, writing, etc.

“It is important to thoroughly research your hobbies, extracurricular activities and related achievements” and advised the civil servant aspirants to get abreast of the current national and international development that are even remotely related to the hobbies or extracurricular activities.

The discussion held in Penman Auditorium during which several faculty members and officers besides the students were present witnessed huge round the applause from the students when Chauhan motivated the students and said “Being confident while facing the interview is quite crucial”.

He also advised the students the student to be truthful about their views but cautioned them against harping on other views and rather exhorted them to concentrate on their own views.

The day also witnessed the competition among different participants about the architecture contest titled, Architectura, organized by Civil Engineering department during which the students.

The comedy night with renowned comedian Gaurav Kapoor is scheduled at the Amber Hostel during the evening from 7.30 pm while the performance of Band of Arya Salvi is scheduled from 9 p.m. onwards.

Rajni Singh

Dean (Media & Branding)