

For Immediate Release: November 22, 2024

Press Release

Prof. Gajendra Kumar Vishwakarma of the Dept. of Mathematics & Computing of IIT (ISM) selected for the Prof. K Srinivasa Rao Best Researcher Award of the Indian Society for Probability and Statistics ISPS-2024.

The name of Dr. Gajendra Kumar Vishwakarma, Associate Professor of the Department of Mathematics and Computing, has been recommended for the Professor K Srinivasa Rao Best Researcher Award of the Indian Society for Probability and Statistics ISPS-2024 for his significant contribution in the field of statistics.

In 2023, he was one step behind Prof. Shalabh of IIT Kanpur, and in 2022, he was one step behind Prof. Somesh Kumar of IIT Kharagpur.

“Finally, this year my name reached the final stage for the prestigious award of ISPS,” said Prof. Vishwakarma, who is the recipient of several other awards, including the Best Researcher Award during the 91st International Research Awards in Engineering, Science, and Management of 2018 held in Pune, and added that the K Srinivasa Rao Best Researcher Award would be conferred during the 44th Annual Convention of the Indian Society for Probability and Statistics in December 2024.

Rajni Singh
Dean (Corporate Communications)