

For Immediate Release: September 4, 2023

PRESS RELEASE

IIT (ISM) celebrates Chandrayan-3 success by staging a Monoact, organizing quiz competition and recitation of poetries.

A host of cultural programs, including staging of a Monoact, recitation of Hindi and English poetries and an on spot quiz competition on Chandrayan mission marked the Chandrayan -3 success celebration held this evening at the Penman Auditorium of IIT (ISM).

The cultural show organized at the Direction of Indian Space Research Organization (ISRO) and All India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) that began at around 7 p.m. this evening after the formal inauguration of the event by Prof JK Pattanayak, Director, IIT (ISM) as chief guest in presence of others including Prof Dhiraj Kumar Deputy Director; Prof Rajni Singh, Dean (Media & Branding) first witnessed the staging of Monoact, titled, Tiranga organized by Abhay Dramatics Club.

The 25 minute Monoact act that kept the hall packed audience, comprising of students, faculty members, officers and staff spell bound was followed by the recitation of English poetries and speech, titled, "A billion dreams take off" organized by the Literary and Debating Club (LITC) of the institute.

An on spot quiz contest, titled, Chandrayan Mahotsav Quiz organized by the Quiz Club of the institute after the poetry recitation (English) witnessed huge response from the students.

The event concluded with a Hindi poem recitation, titled, Chand se Chand Tak organized by Chayanika Sangh, the Hindi Literary club of the institute.

Bhimesh Agarwal, a B Tech (Electrical Engineering) Final year student of IIT (ISM) who is also the General Secretary (Media & Culture) of Student's Gymkhana said, "The students Gymkhana organized the events in coordination with different clubs of the institute to celebrate the extraordinary achievement and inspiring milestone of the country by becoming the pioneering nation to successfully land on the southern pole and the fourth country to have soft landed robotic instrument on the moon.

Rajni Singh

Dean (Media & Branding)