

For Immediate Release: October 29, 2024

PRESS-RELEASE

Prof. Vipin Kumar of the department of Environmental Sciences & Engineering of IIT (ISM) selected as a member of the prestigious National Academy of Sciences.

Prof. Vipin Kumar, Department of Environmental Science and Engineering, IIT (ISM), has been selected as a member of the prestigious National Academy of Sciences, India (MNASc) in Environmental Sciences (Biological Sciences).

Prof. Kumar, whose research interests lie in the fields of microbial remediation of various persistence pollutants; microbial electrochemical systems; solid waste management; ecology and diversity; and biological wastewater treatment, is also a life member of various organizations, including the Association of Microbiologists of India; the Geological Society of India; the Mining, Geological & Metallurgical Institute of India, Kolkata; the Indian Water Works Association, Mumbai; and the Indian Science Congress, Kolkata.

He is also a fellow of the Geological Society of India and was selected for the Inder Mohan Thapar Foundation Research Award for publication in recognition of excellence in research in 2023 and also in 2021.

Prof. Vipin Kumar, whose two patents have been published till date, has over 68 research publications in various national and international journals, including SCI/SCIE, Scopus, etc.

Rajni Singh

Dean (Corporate Communications)