Silver Jubilee Function of 99 Batch of IIT (ISM); Nostalgia at its peak at IIT (ISM) Dhanbad as the Millennium Class of '99 celebrates their 25th graduation anniversary on November 22-23.

Nostalgia was at its peak during the grand reunion of the 1999 batch alumni of IIT (ISM) held on 22nd & 23rd November, during which alumni of the institute representing reputed industries and educational institutions from all across the world, including the USA, UK, and many parts of India, strolled down the lush green campus reminiscing about the golden old moments spent at their alma mater.

The two-day celebrations during which they visited their respective hostels, classrooms, Ramdhani Stall, Golden Jubilee Lecture Theatre (GJLT), Penman Auditorium, and Institute Innovation Hub (i2h) building started on November 23 with a plantation drive—'Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam'—in d different locations of the institute by the alumni.

A grand lunch was hosted by Prof. M K Singh, Dean Academic and Director in Charge, during which a comprehensive discussion with the alumni regarding commemoration of the yearlong Centenary Celebrations beginning with the upcoming Foundation Day of the institute, the 9th of December, 2024, was also held.

Prof. Singh urged the alumni to 'Dream Together, Build Together' and contribute generously to the proposed Centenary Programs and the infrastructure.

Prof. Tanmoy Maity, Associate Dean, International Relations and Alumni Affairs (IRAA), delivered the welcome address during the celebration for the alumni.

Mr. Mritunjay Sharma, Assistant Registrar (IRAA), gave a presentation on the upcoming centenary celebrations.

Prof. Rajeev Upadhyay, Faculty in Charge, Alumni Affairs, delivered the vote of thanks. Dr. Dhiraj Kumar, Horticulture Officer, IIT (ISM), coordinated the plantation drive.

To commemorate their reunion visit, a group photo was shot in front of the Heritage building.
