

For Immediate Release: June 14, 2024

PRESS-RELEASE

Three day Induction programme for 30 newly appointed Junior Assistants concludes with certificate distribution among the participants.

The three day Induction Programme for the newly appointed Junior Assistants concluded on Thursday evening (June 13) with the certificate distribution amongst the 30 participants.

Prof MK Singh, Dean (Academic) who was present during the function as chief guest and handed over the certificates to the participants, while addressing the gathering said, "Though thousands of candidates appeared for the recruitment examination along with you but could not qualify in the test but 30 of you are lucky that you a got the opportunity to be part of this institute after clearing the examination and securing job, thus you should work with full dedication to ensure the growth of the institute"

"The skills learnt during the three day training will help to flourish further in your career by executing your work with greater efficiency" said Singh and expressed confidence that they will serve as strong pillars for the institute on which it will grow further.

Shri Prabodh Pandey, Registrar, IIT (ISM) Dhanbad who was also present during the function as the course coordinator for the programme, while addressing the trainees said "The training received during the last three days will you to execute their day to day work as well as specially assigned tasks with greater efficiency and efficacy and also help you to enhance your competence"

Mr Rajan Chaudhary, Deputy Registrar (Estt.) who is also the Course Co coordinator delivered the vote of thanks during which he expressed his gratitude to Shri Prabodh Pandey, Registrar, IIT (ISM) for his guidance in planning AND executing the entire three day programme and also thanked other trainers including the Faculty In Charge, Deputy RegistrarS, Assistant RegistrarS etc who provided valuable tips to the trainees as part of their respective courses.

Earlier during the concluding day on Thursday, different training sessions, including one on Government e Marketplace and Project & Accounts by Kamesh Kanchan Katariar, Assistant Registrar (Project & Accounts) ; student related matters, student mess, fee structure, scholarship, insurance etc by MN Pandey, Deputy Registrar (Students Welfare); Hostel Management and students related matters by Shivjee Pandey, Assistant Registrar (Students Welfare); House Allotment Rule and Labour Welfare by Rahul Kumar, Assistant Registrar (Estate & Infrastructure) and overview of Academics in IIT (IS) by RD Sharma , Deputy Registrar (Academics) were also conducted.

Rajni Singh

Dean (Corporate Communications)